Teachings

Research Methods

- Since 2018 Questionnaire Survey, Nantes University (Sociology Department), Undergraduate Degree (L1-L2), 18h per semestre.
 Designing and administering a questionnaire;
 Simple statistics with R/RStudio (Description, Graphics).
- 2020 – 2021 Social Data, Nantes University (Sociology Department), Undergraduate Degree (L1), 18h.
 First introduction to empirical research in the social sciences;
 how and why data is produced, who are the main producers of social data, essential notions (census, survey, population, variables, categories, household, family, active population, etc.);
 Themes: professions, various forms of work, unemployment, immigration, inequalities and discrimination.
- 2019 (with Pierre Blavier), Principles and Practices of Modelling in the Social Sciences, Quantilille, Social Sciences Quantitative Methods Summer School (CNRS), June 24-28, 2019, http://quantilille.free.fr/programme\_2019.htm.
 Theoretical basis of inference, linear and logistic binomial and multinomial models; Implementation in R/RStudio.
- 2016–2020 Social Sciences Research Practices, CPES Multidisciplinary Undergraduate degree (PSL), Undergraduate Degree (L1-L2-L3).
 Introduction to quantitative methods and quantitative reasoning;
 Introduction to ethnography;
 Development, testing and administering questionnaires;
 Introduction to R/RStudio.
- 2014 – 2019 Quantifying in the Social Sciences, Master Pratiques de l’interdisciplinarité (PDI, ENS, EHESS), Master 1 & 2.
 Introduction to quantitative methods and quantitative reasoning;
 Geometric data analysis, classifications, optimal matching analysis, modelling.
- 2014 – 2019 Coordination (2015, 2016) and participation (2014, 2015, 2016, 2018) to the ethnographic field course, Master Pratiques de l’interdisciplinarité (PDI, ENS, EHESS), Master 1, One week of fieldwork with students.

2014 – 2016 Introduction to R/RStudio, Master Sociologie & Statistiques (ENS, EHESS), Master 1, 24h each year.

R programming language (including regex and data manipulation);
Principles of tidy data, organisation of workflows and reproducibility;
Implementation of a diversity of techniques: descriptive statistics, geometric data analysis, linear and logistic regressions, survival analysis, optimal matching analysis, lexicometric analysis, network analysis.

2010 – 2014 Quantitative Methods for the Social Sciences, ENS Paris-Saclay, Master 1, 45h each year.

Réflexions on quantification;
Descriptive statistics, inference, tests, geometric data analysis, regressions.
“Second-hand” analysis of national survey data with R/RStudio.

General Teachings and Research Workshops

2021 (with Claire Zalc) “Investigating Migrations and Persecutions: History, Quantification, Ethnography”, EHESS, ENS, Undergraduate and Master degrees, 24h.

Collective workshop linked to the Lubartworld ERC Project;
Research on Lubartowian migrants and their descendants in Paris.
See: <https://lubartworld.cnrs.fr/atelier-d-enquete>.

2018 – 2019 A Century of Work Migrations: Western Europe (1880-1980), ENS, Department of Social Sciences, Preparation to the written examination of the agrégation of economics and social sciences, 30h.

2017 – 2019 Work: Approches in the Social Sciences, ENS, Department of Social Sciences, Undergraduate and Master degrees (L3-M1-M2).

Course created and shared with Jérôme Deauvieux, Claude Didry and Sophie Pochic;
Two sessions dedicated to sociological analysis of occupation trajectories, and to socio-professional categories.

2017 – 2018 Immigration, Race & Class: an Historical Sociology of Migrant Populations, ENS, Department of Social Sciences, L3 – M2, 24h.

2014 – 2017 Generations of French West Indians in the Paris Region, ENS, Department of Social Sciences, Undergraduate and Master degrees (L3-M1-M2), 24h.

Research workshop conceived and supervised with Jennifer Bidet (Paris University, Cerlis) and Audrey Célestine (Lille University, Ceraps);
Collective research on West Indian migrations in the Paris region: ethnography and quantitative prosopography (database of Bumidom personal files).

2014 – 2017 Readings in Migration Studies, ENS, Département de sciences sociales, L3 – M2, 24h.

Course conceived and supervised with Jennifer Bidet (Paris University, Cerlis)

2013 – 2014 Historical Sociology of Immigrants at Work, ENS Paris-Saclay, Department of Social Sciences, Undergraduate and Master degrees (L3-M1-M2), 24h.

2012 – 2013 History/Sociology: Traditions, Crossings, Fieldworks, ENS Paris-Saclay, Department of Social Sciences, Undergraduate and Master degrees (L3-M1-M2), 24h.

Other Teachings

2014 – 2019 Supervision of students.

Tutoring (Department of Social Sciences, ENS Paris, ENS Paris-Saclay) ;
Supervision of Masters' dissertations (Master Pratiques de l'interdisciplinarité, and Master Sociologie & Statistiques);

2014 – 2019 Preparation to the agrégation of economics and social sciences, ENS Paris.

Preparation to written and oral examinations;

Themes:

- Methodology of concours;
- Epistemology of the Social Sciences;
- Social Class;
- Social Mobility;
- Migrations.

2018 – 2019: History Option (written examination): "A Century of Work Migrations: Western Europe (1880-1980)".

Administrative and Pedagogical Responsibilities

2017-2020 Coordination of quantitative and qualitative methodology teachings, Cycle pluridisciplinaire d'études supérieures CPES Multidisciplinary Undergraduate degree (PSL), Undergraduate degrees L1-L3.

Conception of curricula;

Supervision and coordination of a pool of teachers.

2016 – 2019 Coordination of the preparation to the agrégation of economics and social sciences, ENS Paris and ENS Paris-Saclay.

Creation of timetables, in collaboration with a coordinator for economics lessons;

Pedagogical coordination and tutoring of students;

Management of registration procedures;

Management and negotiation of conventions between institutions.
